Some traditional stiles in Harthill have been replaced by kissing gates.

Continue, crossing through the next small field and kissing gate, to another gate.

Go through this gate and walk diagonally across the field to the far corner.

You will reach a gate and bridge over a stream, Broad Bridge Dike. Do not cross the dyke.

Turn sharp right here and walk up the field with the fence on your left.

Go through the kissing gate at the top of the field and follow the path to the Beehive and to Union Street.

Turn left and then first right to Thorpe Road. When you reach Glebe Farm Close, turn right.

Follow the footpath and go through the gate at the end. The Old Schoolroom is on your right. Notice the plaque to John Varley.

Continue down the lane with the Church on your right. Turn left at the end of the lane and walk along Union Street.

You will pass the War Memorial on your left.

Next you will see the village sign with the De Warren Coat of Arms. It gives a brief history of the village.

Then you will see the carved village map.

Continue along the road until you reach the shopping precinct.

Cross the road and turn down Jackys Lane. Go through the kissing gate, turn left and walk down the field back to the car park.
