- 1 From the car park, turn towards the play area and walk up Spens Field to the top. When you get to the wall turn left. After a few yards you will see a kissing gate on your right.

Recently some traditional stiles in Harthill have been replaced by kissing gates.

- 2 Follow the path through the gate and go diagonally across this field. You will see another kissing gate.
- 3 Continue, crossing through the next small field and kissing gate to a stile.
- 4 Cross this stile and walk diagonally across this field to the far corner.
- 5 You will reach a stile and bridge over a stream, Broad Bridge Dike. This dyke feeds into the Chesterfield Canal.
- 6 Cross the bridge and follow the footpath straight ahead, and up the large field. You will come to Walseker Lane.
- 7 Turn right onto the lane. The cottage on your right used to be Janie Todd's sweet shop.
- 8 Continue along Walseker Lane, passing a farm, old cottages, and new housing. Follow the lane, round the bends until you come to a footpath sign on your right.

- 9 Turn right onto this bridle path which will take you straight down the field and back towards Harthill.
- 10 You will come to a bridge over Broad Bridge Dike. Cross the dyke and follow the footpath and bridleway back to the road, Union Street, Harthill.
- 11 Turn right at the main road, passing the Beehive, the church and the shopping precinct.
- 12 Continue on, then turn right just before the roundabout, passing the Blue Bell and back to the car park.
